The people of Chimbote, Peru love the people of Pittsburgh! And the feeling is mutual! From the pioneer Missionary priests and sisters who arrived in the 1960’s and stayed, to today’s volunteer Mission Teams, there is a love affair borne from Jesus’ words in the Gospel of Saint Matthew: “Whatever you do for the least of these, you do for me!” Come and experience this gospel-inspired mission for yourself! From Lima, the nation’s capital, a world-class city of 12 million people, to our sister-diocese of Chimbote where we have built an internationally-respected Catholic healthcare complex (maternity hospital, clinic, laboratory, orphanage and home visit outreach), we will experience the indescribable beauty and faith that is Peru. Join Bishop David Zubik and his brother-Bishop Ángel Francisco Simón Piorno of Chimbote as we celebrate a metaphorical bridge that links our two continents, two dioceses, and two peoples in love and hope.

LIMA AND CHIMBOTE PILGRIMAGE ITINERARY

Thursday, February 21, 2019 – Day 1

Today we depart from Pittsburgh and journey to Lima, Peru on Delta Airlines. Upon arrival, we check into our deluxe Wyndham Hotel for overnight. From the moment we land until our return flight, we will have a professional local guide/ translator serving our group. Since we left Pittsburgh's cold, and arrive in the peak of Peru's summer, we have the option of leaving winter garments for safekeeping at the Wyndham, until we return the following Tuesday.

Friday, February 22, 2019 – Day 2

This morning, after breakfast, we board our comfortable, private motor coach and tour the holy sites of Lima. Our first stop will be to honor two beloved Patron Saints of Peru, Saint Rose of Lima and Saint Martin de Porres, visiting their final resting places at the Basilica y Convento de Santa Domingo. On our pilgrimage, we celebrate Mass daily; today at the Basilica Cathedral of Lima in the Plaza Mayor. We continue to the Iglesia Las Nazarenas, the church housing the revered 17th century painting of Jesus, Señor de los Milagros - Christ of the Miracles. Our day concludes at the must-see Monastery of San Francisco and a prayerful visit to the catacombs. Dinner and overnight at the Wyndham.

Special welcome: At some point on our pilgrim's journey, we hope to be joined by Pope Francis' newly appointed Ambassador to Peru, Nuncio Archbishop Nicola Girasoli.

Señor de los Milagros – Christ of the Miracles

Saturday, February 23, 2019 – Day 3

After breakfast, we begin our day celebrating Mass at a nearby Parish. We depart in our air-conditioned, private motor coach for Chimbote heading north along the historic Pan-American highway with a sea-side stop at the town of Barranca – Tata Restaurant for lunch. We enjoy stunning panoramas of the Pacific Ocean to our left, and awesome expanses of desert sand and the far-off Andes Mountains out our window on the right. We arrive in Chimbote around 5pm. We will check into our Chimbote air-conditioned hotel for dinner and overnight. We spend the next three nights in Chimbote.

Our honorary local tour guides will be Sister Margaret Mary Birchmeier and Sister Lillian Bockheim, two Dominican Sisters from Grand Rapids Michigan who served alongside our diocesan priest, the late-Monsignor Jules Roos ("Padre Julio"), as co-founders of our Mission complex, each for more than 50 years. The sisters are affectionately called "Las Madres" in Chimbote. "Las Madres" will join us for dinner tonight and explain the history and healthcare ministry of the Mission complex.

Founder, the late-Monsignor Jules-Roos

Sunday, February 24, 2019 – Day 4

After breakfast, we depart for a morning tour of some of the sites of Chimbote. We stop at the beautiful Cathedral of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and St. Peter. We will appreciate the division between “old” and “new” Chimbote. This is the dividing line where survivors moved after the devastating earthquake of May 1970 when an estimated 70,000 people in the local Ancash region died. We continue on to La Plaza Veintiocho de Julio, to view the harbor. Lunch at a local restaurant and return to our hotel to freshen up before Mass.

This afternoon, we experience the highlight of our pilgrimage! Our Bishop Zubik and local Bishop Simon-Piorno of Chimbote, will concelebrate an afternoon Mass at San Martin de Porres Parish, close-by our mission, the Center for Social Works (COS) and Maternity Hospital of Mary. After Mass, the two Bishops – perhaps joined by the Papal Nuncio – will rededicate this important Catholic health care mission as a 'bridge of love and hope' between the people of Pittsburgh and Peru. A public reception with the Center's staff, local dignitaries and citizens will follow! Later this afternoon, we return to our hotel for dinner and overnight.

Monday, February 25, 2019 – Day 5

Following breakfast, we will have an opportunity to spend the morning appreciating the life-saving and life-sustaining work of our mission throughout the Center. By breaking into smaller groups, we will experience La Maternidad de Maria Maternity Hospital, where superb pre-and post-natal care has been provided for nearly 99,000 babies over more than one half century. Reminiscent of Jesus' mother Mary on their dangerous desert journey 2,000 years ago, then as now mothers seek a safe place to birth their Little One. We will tour the greatly expanded and modernized medical clinic, just opened in February 2018, a gift of the people of Pittsburgh. The regionally respected laboratory and pharmacy; and the Padre Julio Children's Shelter for abused, abandoned or orphaned children. The warm, infectious smiles of our children there will melt your heart! There will be an opportunity to participate in a short service project this morning. Also, we will provide opportunity to break into small groups and accompany the nurse/social worker teams on home visits into the barrios, to witness first-hand the extraordinary poverty and deep faith of the people of Chimbote. Lunch will be provided locally.

This afternoon we motor to a nearby parish church, Los Santos Mártires, the Holy Martyrs, to celebrate an afternoon Mass. We will pay our prayerful respects among relics of missionary priests martyred in 1991 by the former Shining Path terrorists. The three priests from Italy and Poland were recognized by Pope Francis and beatified in Chimbote in 2015. We will also visit the grave of Monsignor Jules Roos of Pittsburgh, the center's founder who died at COS in 2013 and is buried here among his adopted sisters and brothers. Padre Julio chose to be buried in Chimbote with the people he loved. We will also visit the paupers' cemetery where countless people known only to God have an anonymous final resting place. Tonight we will enjoy a farewell treat, dinner in an upscale Chimbote restaurant, El Porton Gaucho – Gate of the Cowboy – favored for its delicious and varied Peruvian menu. The Mission’s co-founders, “Las Madres” will join us! Tonight is our last night in Chimbote.

Tuesday and Wednesday, February 26/27, 2019 – Days 6 and 7

We depart Chimbote early heading south along the Pan American Highway by motor coach, retracing our route back to Lima. Lunch again will be at the sea-side town of Barranca – at the Tato Restaurant. We will pace ourselves along the way affording time to view some archeological native Indian ruins. In Lima we will check into day-use rooms at the lovely Wyndham Hotel to enjoy some time to rest, refresh, and have dinner. We depart the Lima airport, in the early hours of the morning for an overnight flight back home. We will connect through Atlanta and arrive in Pittsburgh early Wednesday afternoon.

Optional – Pre-Pilgrimage Add-On Excursion to Machu-Picchu February 17 to February 21, 2019 TOTAL - $1499.00 (based on double occupancy)

For those interested in an early optional side-trip to Machu-Picchu prior to the pilgrimage, arrangements have been made for a smaller group to leave Pittsburgh on Sunday, February 17 joining the larger group of pilgrims at the Wyndham when they arrive on Thursday, February 21. Machu Picchu is a world-class heritage site, and Peru's most popular attraction. Dating to the mid-1400s, it is a marvel of mortar-free limestone architecture perched on a high plateau deep in the Amazon jungle. When exploring the mysterious ruins of Machu Picchu, you are at one of the most intriguing destinations on the planet.
