Group Size Limited to 42 pilgrims

Sunday, September 8th –Day 1

San Francisco- Honolulu

Today our pilgrimage begins! We fly nonstop from San Francisco to Honolulu. Upon arrival, we celebrate Mass at St. Augustine by the Sea, a beautiful church right in the center of Waikiki beach. After checking into our hotel, we enjoy free time to acclimate. This evening we gather together for our welcome dinner in a local restaurant Overnight at our hotel in Honolulu.

Monday, September 9th –Day 2

This morning after breakfast, we will visit the magnificent Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace to celebrate Mass. It was completed in 1843, and is renown as the oldest continuously functioning Cathedral in the USA! Saint Damien was ordained a priest in this cathedral, in 1864, two months after his arrival in Honolulu. We continue to St. Patrick's church to view a collection of artifacts belonging to Saint Damien including his carved meerschaum pipe, guava walking stick, vestments, chalice, and his pre dieu (prayer kneeler). These items were publicized during Father Damien's cause for sainthood. We return to our hotel and enjoy an afternoon of leisure. Tonight, we will get a real taste of Hawaii at the THE ROYAL HAWAIIAN AHAINA LUAU right on Waikiki Beach- a short walk from our hotel. Overnight at our hotel.

Tuesday, Sept 10th—Day 3

This morning after breakfast, we visit Pearl Harbor. We enjoy a 3-hour tour of the Arizona Memorial. We pay homage to the 2, 403 Americans who lost their lives and 1, 178 who were wounded. Eighteen ships were sunk or run aground, including five battleships. The Americans killed or wounded during the attack were non-combatants, since there was no state of war when the attack occurred. We celebrate Mass at the Pearl Harbor Catholic Chapel on the American Naval Base! We return to our hotel for free time. Dinner on our own tonight. Overnight at our hotel.

Wednesday, September 11th—Day 4

Today after breakfast, we tour the island! We head south to Diamond Head Crater and view the Amelia Earhart monument. We stop at the Hanauma Bay lookout, a pristine marine ecosystem with colorful living coral reefs, and marine life. We continue to the famous Halona Blowhole lookout, the location of “From Here to Eternity”. Sea turtles are often spotted in these emerald green waters. Our next stop is the Pali Lookout, called by Mark Twain the “most beautiful view on Earth”. Finally, we arrive at the Valley of the Temples and enter the Byodo-in Temple, a photographer’s dream! It is a smaller-scale replica of the over 950- year old Byodo-in Temple in Japan. As we depart, we pass the Chinaman’s Hat, a picturesque islet located in Kaneohe Bay. We celebrate Mass at St. Peter and Paul Church in Waimea before stopping for our included lunch. We continue to Waimea Valley, the location of over 5,000 flowering plants and the most scenic waterfall on the island. Our last stop is the Dole Planation where we marvel at the many colorful varieties of pineapple species from all over Hawaii. Dinner is on our own tonight. Overnight at our hotel.

Thursday, September 12th—Day 5

Today we depart our hotel early and enjoy a highlight of our pilgrimage. We fly to Kalaupapa on the island of Molokai, with Bishop Larry Silva and honor St. Damien and St. Marianne Cope. We journey by private plane and celebrate Mass at St. Philomena Church. We will also visit St. Damien’s first gravesite, St. Marianne Cope’s grave, Papaloa Cemetery, and the foot of the Kalaupapa Trail. We will stop together to eat our included lunch and then continue to St. Elizabeth’s Chapel and Convent before returning by plane to Honolulu. Dinner on your own tonight. Overnight at our hotel.

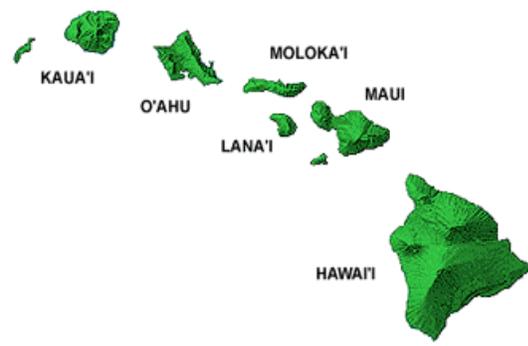

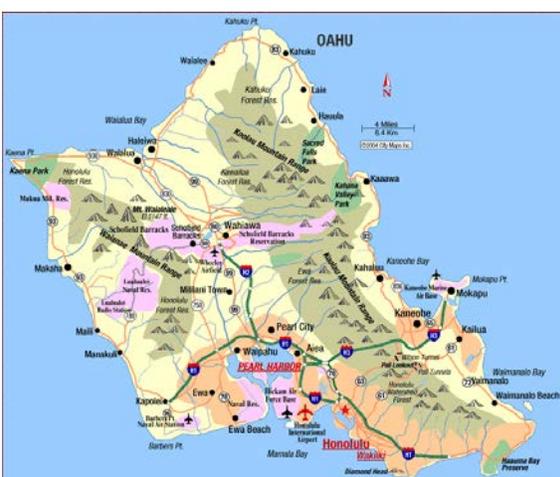

Friday, September 13th, Day 6

Today after breakfast, the day is yours to relax on the beach, shop or further explore the island. We will also have the opportunity to attend Mass at St. Augustine by the Sea. Tonight, we come together for our farewell dinner at the renown Eating House 1849 by Roy Yamaguchi! We celebrate our pilgrimage and bid farewell to Hawaii. Overnight at our hotel.

Saturday, September 14th, Day 7

HONOLULU- SAN FRANCISCO

After breakfast we will journey to the airport. We return home, relaxed and spiritually renewed.
